The report of the Committee on Boundaries was presented, and read, and a motion made to adopt. W. Dennet moved, as a substitute, that we request the next General Conference to fix the boundary according to the line agreed upon at the last session of the Iowa Conference. The question was discussed at length, and the substitute lost, by 19 ayes to 29 nays. The report was then adopted by a vote of 36 ayes to 19 nays. See Report No. VIII.

T. Audas and G. B. Jocelyn offered the following:

Whereas, under our present Discipline none of the super-annuated ministers, their wives, widows and children, are claimants upon our Fifth collection, except such as are needy, and are made claimants by a vote of the Annual Conference, therefore,

Resolved, that we pledge ourselves to present the matter to the various congregations we may serve, and take up the Fifth collection at the time directed by the Conference, and do all we can to meet the full claim of those for whose comfortable support Providence has made us responsible.

Adopted.

The following resolutions were presented by G. B. Jocelyn and E. H. Waring, and adopted:

Resolved, 1st, That the Board of District Stewards in each district of this Conference be requested to elect annually from among the stewards of the several charges, one to represent the financial interests of the district in the Annual Conference.

2nd, That the Stewards so elected shall constitute, conjointly with an equal number of the members of this Conference, to be elected by it annually, a joint Board of Stewards of this Conference.

3d, That the Stewards so elected and admitted shall have the privilege of speaking and voting on all financial questions in the sessions of the Conference.

Dr. Power rose to a question of privilege, and addressed the Conference in justification of his vote in the General Conference on the Slavery question.

The examination of effective elders was resumed, and the name of J. M'Dowell called.

The Committee of Trial in his case reported their decision on the first charge submitted to them, as follows:

"The parties on both sides being ready, anxious, and willing to have the case here fully investigated, but for the sake of time and convenience of the Conference, submit—That inasmuch as much time will be required to examine the papers in the case, which are very voluminous, and the effect of the decision can only be in the end to determine whether a new trial shall be ordered or not;—and the complainant disclaiming all, and making no allegation of any intentional error, but simply bringing the case as the only mode left him for the correction of error, below, real or supposed, in order to obtain a new trial;—and the other party having no unwillingness or objection to a new trial being had before the proper authorities of the M. E. Church, and all error being waived to this disposition of the case, it being conceded for the sake of jurisdiction that there may have been some unintentional error, in the hurry of business in this case; the committee thereupon find accidental error in the case."

On the second charge submitted to them in this case they report their decision as follows: "The committee report, by consent of the parties, that there may be accidental error."

The preachers of Mt. Pleasant District then represented Bro. M'Dowell, and his character passed.

The name of P. P. Ingalls was called. The Committee of Trial in his case reported their decision on the first charge presented to them. The decision contained a preliminary statement, the same as in the case of J. M'Dowell, and the finding was as follows: "The committee thereupon find unintentional error in the case." On the second charge their decision was; "The committee, by consent of parties, report that there may be accidental error." On the third charge their decision was; "The committee report, by consent of parties, that there may be accidental error." Bro. Ingalls was represented, and his character passed.

W. Simpson and O. C. Shelton, offered the following, and it was adopted :

Resolved, by the members of the Iowa Annual Conference that we endorse the doings of the late General Conference in the change of the Chapter on Slavery.

J. M'Dowell presented the parchments of G. F. Twigg, a local deacon, and they were filed.

The Conference resolved to meet again at 4 P. M.

A. S. Prather and J. Hayden offered the following:

Resolved, That in preaching on the subject of Temperance, we will endeavor to set forth the evils of the use of Tobacco, as well as those of Spiritous Liquors.

Adopted.

The report of the Committee on the Tract Cause was presented, read and adopted. See Report No. IX.

The Tract money was paid to Bishop Janes.

The abstract of the report of the Stewards was read; and the report, as a whole, adopted. See Table, No. II.

Notices were given, the Doxology sung, and the session closed with the benediction by Rev. J. H. White.

Evening Session.

The Conference was called to order at the appointed hour, by Rev. Dr. Power. Religious Services conducted by Rev. C. Morey. Bishop Janes then took the chair.

The minutes of the morning session were read and approved.

J. Darrah presented the report of the accounts of the University, asked for in the morning. The reading was dispensed with.

The Bishop presented certificates of the ordination, on Sabbath, Sept. 2, 1860, of M. B. Wayman, E. Miller, D. Murphy, J. H. Hopkins, J. S. Chew, J. M. Dawson, and W. W. Clark as Deacons; and of H. W. Thomas, J. F. Goolman, G. N. Power, S. F. C. Garrison, J. T. Simmons, H. Crellin, A. Laubach, T. D. Boyles and S. S. Gruber, as Elders.

The Report of the Treasurer of the Conference Missionary Society was presented, and the aggregates read. See Report No. X.

The question "Who are admitted on trial?" was taken up, and the following persons, recommended from the charges severally named, were admitted on trial:

James Coats, Blue Grass Circuit; John B. Drayer, Asbury Chapel, Mt. Pleasant; Samuel Roberts, Blakesburg Circuit; Charles W. Shaw, Sigourney Circuit; Samuel H. Thomas, Washington Circuit; Harrison Runyon, Glasgow Circuit; Leroy M. Vernon, University Charge, Mt. Pleasant; Sam'l M. Vernon, Crawfordsville Circuit, and William Byrkit, Fairfield Station. James H. Lucas, a deacon of one year, located from the Illinois Conference in 1857, was re-admitted.

The Stewards distributed the funds in their hands to the several claimants.

The Mission Committee reported, and the report was adopted. The following appropriations were made:

Ebenezer Church, Burlington,	-	-	200
Bethel, Muscatine District,	-	-	100
Rome, Mt. Pleasant	"	-	100
Melrose, Albia	"	-	100

The Bishop was authorized to appoint the Examining and S. School committees for the next year, and to announce them through the Secretary.

The minutes were read up to the close of the session, and approved.

The Bishop then read a Scripture lesson, the Conference united in singing the hymn, commencing;

"And let our bodies part;"

and Dr. Elliott led in prayer.

The Bishop addressed the Conference appropriately, earnestly and affectionately, and then announced the appointments of the preachers for the ensuing year; after which the Doxology was sung, and the Conference adjourned, sine die; at 6.5 P. M., the Bishop pronouncing the benediction.

REPORTS.

I. ON EDUCATION, No. 1.

The Committee on Education has directed me to offer for adoption, by this Conference, the following resolution as part of their report:

Resolved, That every member of this Conference be, and is hereby instructed to present, to the best of his ability, in each congregation of his work, the condition of the Iowa Wesleyan University, at some time between the first of December, 1860, and the middle of January, 1861, and take up a collection to assist in defraying the current expenses of said University for the collegiate year of 1860 and 1861, and forward the same at the earliest practicable moment to T. Whiting, Treasurer of said University.

GEO. B. JOCELYN, SEC'Y.

ON EDUCATION, No. 2.

The Committee on Education has directed me to offer the following report:

We deem it unnecessary to urge upon this Conference the duty of doing all they can to sustain the I. W. University, and thus advance the cause of sanctified learning. This duty has been frequently and ably presented, and we would therefore simply report the following resolutions:

Resolved, That we, as members of the Iowa Conference, will earnestly recommend to our people the importance of patronizing the I. W. University by sending their sons and daughters as students, thus giving it a strong hold upon their affections

2, That T. Audas, H. Gibson, W. Dennet, H. W. Thomas, I. A. Bradrick, James Haynes, O. C. Shelton, M. Carrier and E. H. Waring be appointed Visitors of the University.

3, That the Bishop be requested to appoint A. J. Kirkpatrick agent of the University.

G. B. JOCELYN, SEC'Y.

II. ON TEMPERANCE,

Your committee respectfully report, that whereas, our hearts are deeply interested in the cause of Temperance, and, whereas, the evil of Intemperance, carrying with it all the miseries of its train, has spread over our communities; and whereas we would have the action of our hands correspond with the feelings of our hearts;

Therefore, Resolved.—1st. That we will have an annual sermon on Temperance, at some suitable time during each session of the Annual Conference. And we hereby request the Bishop to appoint, at each of our annual sessions, one of our number to preach said sermon.

2nd, That each traveling preacher be required to preach upon the subject of Temperance, at least once at each of his appointments, within the Conference year.

3d, That we will labor to inculcate the doctrine that it is the duty of every christian to show his faith, in regard to temperance, by his works at the polls, by voting for such men to represent him in the State Legislature as will vote for a Prohibitory Law.

4th, That in the opinion of this Conference, distillers, for the purpose of distillation, renders the seller as culpable as the distiller.

A. W. JOHNSON, } Com.

III. ON THE BIBLE CAUSE.

Through the goodness of our Heavenly Benefactor, the people have been blessed with a bountiful harvest; while the general indications concerning the financial interests of the country are much more favorable than the previous year. These things should prompt to a renewal of effort on the part of every lover of the Bible during the coming year. Our Agent should take early steps toward organizing new societies in all localities where demanded, and to resuscitate every languishing one, that new life may be infused into this, among the best of all religious institutions. The committee offer the following resolutions:

1, That we most cordially invite, and earnestly request the Bible Agent to visit our several pastoral charges, to present the subject to our people, and to collect such funds as can be obtained for the circulation of the Bible.

2, That as ministers, we will cheerfully co-operate with the Bible Agent, when desired, in this good work.

V. ON MEMOIRS.

Memoir of the Rev. G. W. Conrad, who died April 28th, 1860.

Bro. Conrad was born in Franklin County, Indiana, Dec. 15th, 1836, joined the M. E. Church when fifteen years of age, and soon after experienced the new birth. He was licensed to exhort by E. D. Long of the Indiana Conference, about five years ago. Was educated at the Brookville College, and afterwards taught in that institution for a short time. In May 1856, he came to Iowa, and on the 20th day of Dec., in the same year, was licensed to preach, and about three months after was appointed assistant supply on the Indianola circuit, where he labored with great acceptability and usefulness. At the close of the year he was recommended to the Iowa Annual Conference, to be held in Des Moines, Sept. 7th, 1857, and was received into the traveling connection, and appointed to the Bentonsport circuit, assistant preacher. The next year he was appointed to Pittsburg circuit, in charge. He entered upon his new field, and from excessive labor and exposure, disease settled upon his lungs, from which he never recovered. After laboring on the Pittsburg circuit about seven months, he was sent by his Presiding Elder to supply the Exchange Street charge, Keokuk; for the remaining part of the year. While there his health continued to decline. At the Conference held in Muscatine, Sept. 7th, 1859, he was received into full connection, ordained deacon, and, in view of his declining health, received a supernumerary relation, and was appointed to Winchester circuit, with W. C. Shippen. He continued to decline until all hope that he could long survive was gone. On the 21st of April, in conversation with Bro. Shippen, he said: "I have a clear and soul refreshing view of the glorious scheme of redemption. Oh, it is so complete; so full. I know I shall not live long here. I shall soon change my manner of living; then I shall realize a more glorious state of being; I am gradually loosing hold of the world, and looking anxiously forward to my future home. O when shall I be here?" He was then asked if he had any word to send to his brethren of the Conference, to which he replied, "I love them all. Their short acquaintance has been sweet to me. I esteem their fellowship above every other association. Tell them to preach Jesus and the resurrection. Oh, tell them I have a view of my Saviour's glory. Oh, glory, glory, glory! What bright transcendent glory! Christ and the children of the resurrection arrayed in robes of living white ascending through the air! Oh, I shall have a part in that resurrection forever, glory, glory! Oh, tell my brethren I feel the glorious resurrection near and shout with ecstasy and joy divine. Tell them I see the glorious Saviour arrayed in flaming robes of white, and clothed with resurrection power; Oli, glory, I want to preach him while I live, and with my latest breath gasp the sweet name of Jesus, Jesus."

On the 24th day of April, he was supposed to be dying, at which time he realized a great struggle of mind. He thought that when called to die he would be able to shout, and remarked, that it was not as he had expected and that he could not understand it. After a short struggle he said; "This is a test and I must meet it—I shall pass through it—I believe, —I have faith in Christ and I shall triumph." He then said to all present, "If I should not be permitted to shout in my last moments, I want you to understand that I go safe." On Tuesday the 26th of April he said to his wife, "I have fought the good fight, I have finished my course." Still continuing to sink rapidly, on Friday night, all were assembled to see him die. He was in a state of great ecstasy, and had a burning desire to preach Christ to the last, and repeated the verse:

"Happy, if with my latest breath,
I may but gasp his name;
Preach him to all, and cry in death,
Behold, behold the Lamb."

And though he had not spoken above a whisper for days, when he came to the last line of the verse, with his emaciated arm lifted a full length, he repeated with a full tone of voice, "Behold, behold the Lamb." The day of his departure, he was almost constantly praising God. And when he became blind, and could no longer behold his friends, the presence of whom had given him so much pleasure, he said to his wife, who was holding his dying head, "I can't see, but I can feel, I am happy, bless God." Thus he continued until he could speak no more. When suddenly the silver cord was loosed, and the golden bowl was broken. Bro. Conrad is gone. He was a young man of great promise, and by his death the church has sustained a great loss: but our loss is his gain. What has been taken from this world has been added to the glories of the better.

He requested that this inscription should be written upon his tomb stone.

"Here lies the Rev. G. W. Conrad, a sinner saved by Grace."

Signed by the Committee.

[The Memoir of Rev. I. M Claskey has not been received.]

VI. ON PERIODICALS.

Your committee beg leave to report that they have had under consideration the subject of Religious Literature, as embraced in the periodicals of our church. They are satisfied that the prosperity of our people depends to a great extent, upon the influence exerted upon them by our religious publications.

That a people may be prosperous and happy, they must be well informed. It will not be denied that a wholesome literature is one of the grand sources of information; hence that a people may be well informed, they must be conversant with such literature. Truth and error must ever stand opposed, the one as productive of good and the other of evil. If the literature of a country, then, is false, it leads to error, or results in injury, and if pure it sheds upon the country truth and becomes a blessing. It is therefore, the duty of every minister of Jesus Christ, to exert himself in the circulation of a sound and correct literature. Man is a moral, or religious, as well as an intellectual being, and if his intellect only is informed, he is but half instructed. A literature, then, that would inform and develop the whole man must be adapted to his twofold nature, and hence be both intellectual and religious. The character of the people of our age is molded by the literature of the age. If the literature be vicious and licentious the people will be so to a great extent. If the literature be pure and religious it tends to make the people better. For the truth of these assertions we need only to refer to the history of the past.

An incalculable amount of licentious and demoralizing literature, in the shape of novels, romances and skeptical works is now flooding our country, the tendency of which is to vitiate the judgment, pervert the mind and corrupt the heart. These works are noticed, and puffed, and endorsed by the secular papers, and the people are thereby led to purchase and read them, to their own injury, and the neglecting of works of value. The declaration of our Lord, "The children of this world are wiser in their generation than the children of light," is true in literature.

What religious man, editing a secular paper, gives as much room in his paper to notices of religious books and periodicals as to those of a secular character, and even of doubtful morals? In scarcely any of our secular papers, edited by worldly men, are religious publications brought to the view of the public. And yet, what extended and multiplied notices of books, of a different character, many of which are injurious!

Many of our secular papers, without intending it, tend to the retarding of Christianity by recommending a literature opposed to its spirit. It is the duty, then, of men laboring for the cause of God, to do their best to counteract this tendency, by putting into the hands of our people, the literature of the church. The tendencies of our literature are to better people intellectually and religiously. Let our periodicals be extensively circulated and read, and the pulpit and pastoral efforts of our brethren will be more fruitful in pleasure to themselves, glory to God, and salvation to men.

Your committee submit the following resolutions:

Whereas, The spirited and able manner in which the C. C. Advocate has been so far conducted, meet with our hearty concurrence.

Resolved, 1st, That we make special and increased efforts to extend the circulation of said Advocate throughout the bounds of our Conference.

2d. That, as we regard the influence of our own periodicals as highly beneficial in promoting the cause of Christ, we hereby pledge ourselves to extend their circulation as far possible among all our people.

F. W. EVANS, CHAIRMAN.

VII. ON SABBATH SCHOOLS.

We deem the Sabbath School Cause of so much importance to the Christian church that no one can do his duty as a Gospel minister who neglects the children in the Sabbath School, or in pastoral visitation. We therefore recommend the following resolutions:

1st. That we will pledge ourselves individually always to be present when at all practicable at the Sabbath School.

2d. That we will preach at least two sermons during the year, in each congregation, to the children.

3d. That the Sabbath School Committee shall provide for the holding of an anniversary during the session of each Annual Conference, at which addresses shall be delivered on the subject.

4th. That we will also call attention to the resolutions passed at the last two sessions of this Conference concerning collections for the S. S. Union of the M. E. Church, which is now much embarrassed.

J. CRAIG, CHAIRMAN.

VIII. ON BOUNDARIES.

The committee offer the following report:

The line of division of the Iowa Conference not being in accordance with the line proposed by the Conference at Muscatine, our brethren of the W. Iowa Conference feel greatly aggrieved. We deeply regret the existing dissatisfaction and earnestly desire that the kindest fraternal feeling may ever exist between the two conferences.

But whereas, in the division, more than half of the territory of the original Conference has fallen to them, and whereas nothing can be done to change the line before the next General Conference, and against that time the territory of the W. Iowa Conference may be so far settled as to remove the ground of complaint of want of population;

Therefore resolved, That we deem it inexpedient for this Conference to take any further action in the case until its last session preceding the next General Conference.

JOHN HARRIS, CHAIRMAN.

IX. ON THE TRACT CAUSE.

It is with feelings of deep regret that we learned that the Iowa Conference has become almost entirely disconnected with this great movement of our church; and that the interest we have heretofore had in the enterprise is fast dying out. While the constitution of the Tract Society of the church provides that each Annual Conference may form a Conference Tract Society auxiliary thereto, whose President shall be a Vice President of the Parent Society; we have no such organization. Two years ago the collections amounted to $38.35. One year ago the amount was only $3.92. This year it is but $4.10. This is exceedingly small compared with what we have done for other objects. Of the nine districts which composed the Conference one year ago, five reported no collections. In all last year, only five charges, Springville, Eddyville, Marengo, Rising Sun and Oceola, reported collections for the cause, and these were very small. This year we have collections from two charges only; viz: Old Zion, Burlington $3.10, and Bentonsport $1.00. In view of these facts we offer the following resolutions:

1st, That we are constrained to acknowledge that as a body of ministers, nearly all of us have been remiss in this department of our work.

2d, That we will, in the coming year, give more attention to the Tract Cause.

3d, That when we order books, we will send for tracts and tract books for sale and distribution.

4th, That we commend to the special notice of our preachers the rule of Discipline on this subject. See Discipline, pp. 86-87.
